SUMMER LOOKBOOK

JUNIPER CUSTOM PLANTERS

Exceptional customer experience is no longer a nice-to-have.

Loyalty is earned before customers walk in the door.

Eye-catching storefronts are more than window dressing.

They signal quality and attention to detail. They tell potential customers that the owner cares.

Your storefront is on call 24/7 and should be your best salesperson.

Is yours working hard enough for you?

It's not just a good idea,
it's science.

Biophilic designs*
positively influence buying behavior.

Commercial areas with well-maintained
planters experience
23% higher foot traffic and an average 7%
increase in sales.

-Journal of Environmental Psychology

*Biophilic refers to people having an innate connection with nature, resulting in positive physiological, psychological and cognitive functions.
